Monthly Agenda Items:

1. Motion Tracking Spreadsheet

CTA members requested that staff provide a report to review and track motions. The motion tracking report that was presented at the August 8, 2007, meeting was revised and will be presented monthly to the committee. The CTA chair's report is a standing item on the TP&O committee's agenda. In addition to providing this report, the CTA chair was invited by the chair of the TP&O committee to speak to any issues related to the CTA at the October 18, 2007 meeting. At the October 2007 CTA meeting, committee members stated that they wanted the motion tracking report separated into current motions and archived motions. At the November 2007 meeting, CTA members advised that they wanted to continue to receive both the current and archived motion tracking reports in their packets.

2. Mainstreaming Individuals with Disabilities into VTA

At the September 12, 2007 meeting, the CTA requested that staff agendaize this item on a monthly basis even if staff does not have anything to report. Although CTA initially requested that staff mainstream individuals with disabilities into VTA, at the October 10, 2007 meeting, the CTA requested that staff not use the term "mainstreaming." CTA will provide staff with their preferred terminology. Until then, staff will continue to use the term "mainstream."
